

The Fallen

Cuckfield

is no different to any other town or village in the country in being proud to honour those who died for their country in times of war.

The following are recorded on the war memorial in the churchyard, by the north door of Holy Trinity Church, on which is inscribed:

To our four brothers

resting in South Africa

and for those who have returned in peace

Thanks be to God

The following are recorded on the war memorial in the churchyard, by the south door of Holy Trinity Church, which has the following inscription:

Let us hold

in grateful

remembrance

those whose names are here recorded

who having left

their homes

at the call of

king and country

to fight for God

and the right

gave up

their own lives

that others might

live in freedom

They are also recorded on a memorial inside the Church, on the wall by the South door, on which is inscribed:

They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old:

Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.

At the going down of the Sun and in the morning

We will remember them.
